Brooklyn Bounty will feature music, cocktails and delicious local food from the best Brooklyn purveyors. This evening of festive celebration supports education programs at the Brooklyn Historical Society

WHEN:

Thursday, October 29, 2009

6:30 – 9:30 pm at the Brooklyn Historical Society, 128 Pierrepont St., Brooklyn, NY.

WHAT:

Great food and drink from Brooklyn Purveyors:
An Evening of Celebration to Support BHS Education Programs.

Brooklyn Bounty will be an evening filled with music, cocktails and delicious local food from many of Brooklyn's most popular vendors including seasonally inspired dishes from catering favorites Naturally Delicious. BHS will serve delicious food with a variety of local partners: ice cream from Blue Marble, pickled goodies from McClure's, beer from Brooklyn Brewery and wine from Red Hook Wineries. The Brooklyn Kitchen will also donate items from their Williamsburg store for the event's silent auction. The silent auction features unique New York excursions and gifts. Local music group Piñataland will perform at the party, bringing their energy and "grand Americana orchestra" to add to the evening's fun.

Last year, BHS' fall fundraiser helped raise more than $110,000 in support of the Brooklyn Historical Society's education programs. With the funds raised, thousands of NYC students were able to learn how immigration, industry and culture shape our borough and country. Help BHS serve schools in the borough by buying a ticket to this year's fabulous event.
